What an incredible week! Vacation Bible School was a resounding success, and it simply would not have been possible without the dedication, heart, and energy of our wonderful volunteers. To everyone who gave their time and talent this week, thank you.

- To our crew leaders and teachers: Thank you for the endless love and kindness you showed to every child who walked through our doors. By bringing so much joy, energy, and enthusiasm each day, you showed our kids that learning about God and growing in faith is not only important—it is full of fun and delight! You modeled Christ's love in a way they will remember for a long time.
- To our setup and decorating crew: Thank you for working tirelessly behind the scenes to transform our church into a stunning, vibrant rainforest. Walking through the doors felt like stepping into an exciting jungle adventure, and your creativity set the stage for an unforgettable week.
- To our meal teams: Thank you for keeping us nourished, energized, and cared for with delicious meals every single night. Serving a crowd night after night is no small task, and your hospitality meant so much to our families and volunteers alike.

Because of your willing hands and servant hearts, seeds of faith were planted, wonderful memories were made, and our kids experienced the warmth of a loving church community. I am endlessly grateful for each and every one of you! Love-Jennifer

Matthew 14: 13-21

Feeding the Five Thousand

¹³ Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. ¹⁴ When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. ¹⁵ When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, “This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.” ¹⁶ Jesus said to them, “They need not go away; you give them something to eat.” ¹⁷ They replied, “We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish.” ¹⁸ And he said, “Bring them here to me.” ¹⁹ Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven and blessed and broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. ²⁰ And all ate and were filled, and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. ²¹ And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.
